
ASTs for MFL in Wiltshire - Welcome!

Welcome to the MFL area of the Wiltshire AST website.

Sue Drake

I qualified as an AST in September 2006 and have since been working with schools across Wiltshire with the support of the County and my school - St. John's School and Community College in Marlborough. I am also the Lead Teacher for the South Wiltshire Strategic Learning Network for MFL.

Paul Lawrance

I was appointed AST for MFL in Wiltshire in May 2006. I work at Abbeyfield School in Chippenham and have worked extensively with MFL departments across Wiltshire. I have contributed to network meetings of all three Strategic Learning Networks in the county.

Our MFL blog

Please visit our MFL blog at this address: <http://www.mflastwiltshire.blogspot.com> . This contains a wide range of links and other materials we hope you will find useful. You may find that blogspot sites are filtered by your school. This can be remedied if you speak to your school's network manager. Of course, you can access our blog from home at any time. On both this website and on the blog, we will endeavour to keep you up-to-date with matters relating to MFL teaching.

MFL resources

We have started to upload resources we hope you will find useful to this website. Click the "Media" tab at the top and then scroll down to MFL.
